

Occupation to be that of a ~~farmer~~ ^{farmer} and labourer but that his eye sight and bodily strength does not admit of his pursuing the business and employment and thro his family consists of himself and his wife who is also old and infirm, Dependent Subjects - list of his property, vizt

- One Cow
- One Hog
- 1 Bed and bedding
- Some plates, knives & forks &c
- One Old Coat &c
- a few seeds
- 2 Iron pots

That he receives forty Dollars per year from the State of Pennsylvania and half pension from the United States which is the principle means of his subsistance -

The interest which he has in the account of Poor land from having paid 50 Dollars on it but which he is totally unable to pay for the same he has no title, nor was there any article of agreement between him and Hugh Dauncin the proper owner.

Sworn to and Subscribed in Open Court this 1st August 1820.
D. Manner Justice

John McCracken

Deaf and County, J. Philip Morgan a reputable testimony being duly sworn deposes and saith, that he is well acquainted with the within named John McCracken and that he is a man of truth and that he believes the Schedule within filed to be a true list or Schedule of the property of said John McCracken that the whole of which in the opinion of a competent is not worth eighty Dollars

Sworn to and Subscribed this 1st August 1820. in Open Court
D. Manner, J. J.

Philip Morgan

Abraham Martin Esquire being duly sworn deposes and saith that he is well acquainted with the within named John McCracken, and that the circumstances of the said John McCracken are well known to Dependent and that he believes the foregoing list a Schedule to be a true list of said McCracken's property the whole of which he believes is not worth forty Dollars, that the only means