

Bedford County

Frequently appeared before me one of the justices of the peace in and for the said County John Longstreth aged eighty one years and after being sworn according to law with oath and say that he does remember very well that in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Seventy six in the month of September, that Martin Longstreth enlisted in the Service of the Flying Camp under Captain Andrew Hines in Colonel Mifflins battalion and General Bells Brigade we met at Muncack and marched to Hempstead thence to York thence to Lancaster thence to Philadelphia thence to Trenton thence to Princeton thence to Brunswick thence to Amboy thence to Elizabethtown and thence to Dubois Ferry on the north river we detained there a few days then marched after night to Fort Lee staid there some time evacuated Fort Lee and marched to Hackensack bridge was there a few days then marched to Jacket river bridge, thence to New York then to Fort Mifflin thence to Princeton and thence through Trenton to Philadelphia Our time being expired we were dismissed and the said Martin Longstreth went to his place of residence in Pennsylvania Sworn to and subscribed the 14th day of Aprile AD 1834

Before me

John Jordan

John Longstreth
mark

Bedford County

Before me one of the justices of the peace in and for the said County Hannah Sindledaker and after being sworn according to law with oath and say that she does remember of Martin Longstreth being enlisted and going to serve in the Flying Camp and believes that he served out his full time The said Hannah Sindledaker was living in the County of Bedford and State of Pennsylvania at that time and is aged one hundred and two years Sworn to and subscribed the 14th day of Aprile AD 1834

Before me

John Jordan

Hannah Sindledaker
mark

I John Jordan do certify that the foregoing witnesses John Longstreth and Hannah Sindledaker are persons of credibility and that full faith and credit are due to their statements either on oath or otherwise Given under my hand this date above written John Jordan