

State of Pennsylvania and
Huntingdon County

On this twenty second day of June in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, before me the subscriber, one of the Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, personally appears John Boyle aged about seventy seven years, resident in Huntingdon County in Pennsylvania aforesaid, who being by me first duly sworn according to law doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the late Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War." That he the said John Boyle enlisted in the Town of Borough of Carlisle in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania with Lieutenant Thomas Campbell of York County in the Company commanded by Captain William Ross in the Fourth Pennsylvania Regiment, commanded by Col. William Butler in the Pennsylvania Line; that he continued to serve in the said Corps, in the service of the United States until in the month of August One thousand seven hundred & eighty one when he obtained a furlough and was discharged in the month of April One thousand seven hundred & eighty two by Captain (formerly Lieutenant) Thomas Campbell in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania aforesaid, which discharge he put in the hands of David Dunham in order to annul the same that this applicant thought himself entitled to, and he never seen it since, this transaction took place in the year 1785. That he was in the battles of Brandywine & Germantown, and in the year 1778 was detached under the command of Gen. Sullivan to dohark, and in the year 1779 was in the Battles of Newtown & Red Bank with the officers and also in a number of skirmishes with both the British Army & with the Indians. That he is in reduced circumstances and blind having lost the sight of his eyes, and stands in need of the assistance of his Country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services that has hitherto pension heretofore allowed him by the laws of the United States to his knowledge & if any such exists, he doth hereby fully and entirely release the same to the United States. Sworn to & subscribed & declared before me, the day & year aforesaid.

Before
David Stewart

Pennsylvania and Huntingdon County

John Boyle
mark or signature

I, David Stewart, an Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania do hereby certify that it appears to my satisfaction that the said John Boyle