

State of Pennsylvania and
Huntingdon County Pa.

On this twenty sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, before me the subscriber, one of the Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County aforesaid in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, personally appears Henry Clemens aged sixty three years & six months, old, resident in Morris Township in the County of Huntingdon and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but formerly of the State of Jersey, being by me first duly sworn, according to the law & oath on his Oath, in the following declaration, in order to obtain the provisions made by the late Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land and Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War" That he the said Henry Clemens enlisted in Westfield in the State of Jersey in the Company commanded by Captain James Maxwell in the month of May One thousand seven hundred & seventy seven in the second Jersey Regiment commanded by Gen. Shrieve for three years & during the War, that he continued to serve in the said corps in the service of the United States until the later end of the month of November or in the beginning of the month of December in the year One thousand seven hundred & eighty three, when he was discharged from service in Morris Township in the State of Jersey, which discharge he lost afterwards in the City of Baltimore in the State of Maryland, that he was in the Battles of Germantown where he was wounded & taken prisoner and was prisoner for eight months also in the Battle of Monmouth after he was exchanged in Whiteplain and in the Battles of Newtown French Latharinet & Appletown in the Genesee Country under General Sullivan with the Indians. And that he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his Country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services. That he hath no pension heretofore allowed him by the laws of the United States to his knowledge, if any such exists he doth hereby, fully & entirely, release the same to the United States. Sworn to subscribed & declared before me, the day & year aforesaid.

Before
David Stewart

Sworn to & declared
Henry Clemens

Pennsylvania & Huntingdon County Pa.

David Stewart an Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania do certify, that it appears to my satisfaction, that the said Henry Clemens did serve in the revolutionary War, as stated in the preceding declaration, against the common enemy, and I now transmit the proceedings & testimony taken & had before me, to the Secretary for the Department of War, pursuant to the directions of the aforesaid act of Congress. May 29th 1818.
