Ashland, Ohio

Madam:

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, R.4846, it appears that Valentine Heffner or Heffner was born in 1758, in Germany, and came to America when he was an infant.

He alleged that while residing near Chambersburg, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, he enlisted and served as a private with the Pennsylvania Troops as follows:

From the 1st of June, 1777, six months in Captain David Clappsaddle's Company in Colonel Johnson's Regiment and was in a skirmish on Ridge Road near Germantown; from September, 1778, three months in Captain Heiser's Company in Colonel Johnson's Regiment; in the summer of 1779, one month in Captain Cadwallader's Company, in Colonel Allison's Regiment.

He applied for pension August 14, 1837, at which time he was living in Walker Township, Huntingdon County,
