Huntingdon County
Doctor Alexander Johnston being duly sworn deposith that he is well acquainted with the aforesaid declarant John Irvine & with his circumstances & property & that in his opinion the property of said John Irvine is not worth more than two hundred & thirty dollars & that the same is unproductive & would not rent for more than would keep said property in repair & that it would take the rent for five years to put said property in repair & that said property is not salable at present almost at any price near its value
