

Pennsylvania
Huntingdon County

Alexander King being duly sworn, before the subscriber an Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for said County doth depose and say that he enlisted on the tenth day of January 1776 at New London Camp Roads in Chester County Pennsylvania with Captain Henry Darby in the Delaware Regiment commanded by Colonel Hazlet for the Term of one year, during which Term deponent was in the battle of Long Island, White Plains in which he received a slight wound in the hand from the Bayonet of a Hessian, and continued in said Regiment thro' the Jersey's and was at the taking of the Hessians at the Battle of Red Bank. That he returned home to Chester County aforesaid in January 1777. The term for which he enlisted, having expired. That deponent again enlisted in Chester County aforesaid at the Camp Roads in the Spring of 1777 with Lieutenant William Henderson in Captain Benjamin Nesbitt's Company 11th Pennsylvania Regiment on the Continental establishment commanded by Lieutenant Colonel William Butler Comd' during the War as a Corporal and afterwards served as a Sergeant. That during the last mentioned enlistment he was at the Battle of Brandywine and Germantown, and shortly after the Battle of Monmouth the said Regiment was detached to Schoharie where we wintered and in the following summer joined General Sullivan at the Mouth of the Schoharie on his expedition against the Indians thro' the Seneca Country and after that expedition was over joined the main Army and remained in the service until January 1781. during the latter period he had several severe attacks of sickness which rendered him unfit for further service, on which account he obtained his discharge and returned to his family. And deponent further saith that neither he or any person for him ever received any donation Lands or Pension from the United States on account of his services aforesaid and deponent further saith that from his reduced circumstances he needs the assistance of his Country for support, and should he be entitled to a Pension under any former Law of Congress or the United States he doth hereby entirely and fully release the same to the United States.

GIVEN ^{to} and subscribed
this 14th day of April A.D. 1818

Before
David Stewart

Huntingdon County
State of Pennsylvania

Alexander King, before named being duly